› PROFESSIONAL BIOGRAPHY

As Chief Information Officer (CIO) and Chief HR Officer (CHRO) at Flix, Daniel Krauss oversees the company's technology and people. Together with his co-founders, he has developed Flix into an international transport provider. Krauss is also an investor and advisory board member in companies such as Babyone and UNITY. He is convinced that education, entrepreneurship and innovation can significantly advance society. He is a frequent lecturer at the Friedrich-Alexander University in Erlangen and a trusted advisor of the MCI (Management Center Innsbruck), HS Ansbach and the University of Hamburg. He is also an active shareholder in Germany's largest NGO for entrepreneurial education, STARTUP TEENS, and a co-shareholder and trustee of CODE University.
